

Please leave the Wisconsin no call list intact. Telemarketers have no "right" to invade my privacy, or interrupt my dinner. Since the no call list was enacted, the quality of my life has improved. This is a wonderful law, and it should be left alone.